Thank you for considering joining us in the Philadelphia area for Alport Connect 2026.

All event programming and activities will take place at Alloy King of Prussia. Attendees can stay at this resort or select other lodging. The King of Prussia area has a wide variety of options to accommodate a range of budgets for hotels, a casino resort, and/or other temporary homes away from home. We know you may be planning to just stay for the weekend or choosing to extend your stay as a vacation. Below is a list of options for your consideration.

The Alloy King of Prussia - A DoubleTree by Hilton

ASF has secured a limited number of rooms at our event venue, The Alloy King of Prussia, for patients and families. The room block is only offered for the evenings of Friday, July 17th (the night before the event) and the evening of Saturday, July 18th. Rates start at $169.00 a night before taxes and fees. Free parking is available on-site for hotel patrons and visitors. If you would like to stay on the event property, your room must be reserved by June 26th. After that date the rooms and rate cannot be guaranteed. *As of 2/10/26 only 13 rooms left in our discounted room block.

Click here to reserve Friday and Saturday night lodging at The Alloy King of Prussia in our designated room block. You may also call 855-610-TREE and mention Alport Syndrome Foundation to make reservations.

Other Hotel Options Near Our Event

If you need additional accommodations apart from The Alloy, you are welcome and encouraged to conduct your own search for accommodations that best suit your needs.

Some of the hotels that are within a short drive (within 1 mile) to the event venue include, but are not limited to:
